PURELY PALM BEACH

A truly memorable dining experience begins with a stunning backdrop. That is what Ashley Warren, a designer with McCann Design Group, sought to orchestrate in this luxury spec home. Given free rein, Warren went all in on creating an elevated Old Florida vibe that infuses the previously unoccupied home with vibrant personality. “We wanted elements that felt true to Florida and Palm Beach,” says Warren. “We knew when we started that we wanted to incorporate the trellis millwork details and the de Gournay wallpaper to give some interest and depth to the space. We also used the beautiful KRB pineapple palm lamps with the hand-painted lampshades that felt very Palm Beach and classic.” The result is a dynamic dining room bursting with visual intrigue, both in terms of the artistic details and the geometrically robust elements that provide intricacy, elegance, and a joyful effervescence.
